Commitment to Truth and Reconciliation

In recognition of National Indigenous Peoples Day,

And in alignment with the CBE Education Plan,

MAHOGANY SCHOOL

Acknowledges and supports the

Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) Calls to Action,

And makes the following commitment to action for the 2023-2024 school year:

Our Stories Bring Us Together - What Is OUR Story?

"This is how you change the world, the smallest circles first." R. Wagamese

Inspired by Murray Sinclair's four questions we will be using the following questions as provocations for our work: What stories do we have to tell? What stories does the land have to tell? How are we all connected?

As a Downie & Wenjack Legacy School we continue to engage ReconciliACTIONS and commit to "Do Something" beginning in September each year continuing with conversations and recognition throughout the year. We will unpack what our actions will be as a Legacy School.

Learning on the Land – Continuing our work with the teachings of Elder Kerrie Moore through Story and learning intentions from the land (Mahogany Wetland areas). This past year we dug deep into 'Spirit' and we will build on this work as we journey through the Indigenous Education Holistic Lifelong Learning Framework to enter into 'Heart – To Belong'.

Establish a committed group of students and teachers that will share, plan and design tasks for the school community that align with the Indigenous Education Holistic Lifelong Learning Framework

In building capacity for intercultural understandings as we establish a new school culture, we acknowledge the past and move forward into the future together by creating a common language of understanding from the Framework in creating inclusive, respectful, welcoming and caring positive classroom settings.

In making our commitment, Call to Action #63- Building student capacity for intercultural understanding, empathy, and mutual respect offered inspiration.
